"Smash the machine," is the cry that is going up all over the country. The common people could not do a better thing than to smash every political machine in existence, in every political party. So long as machine politics are permitted to rule, the public will receive scant courtesy, and as for their rights—well, the people will never have any. Smash the machines and let the voice of the people rule in this free republic.

In following out his policy of posing as a philanthropist John D. Rockefeller offered the University of Nebraska the sum of $67,000, but the people of that state are opposed to accepting any gift from Mr. Rockefeller. And when we consider their reasons (if their real ones were made public) we cannot but admire their pluck. The money which Mr. Rockefeller offered the Nebraskans was undoubtedly obtained by highwayman methods, for no sooner was the donation of the $67,000, announced than the price of oil in that state was advanced a cent a gallon. Evidently John D.'s idea was that the people of Nebraska would put up the money and he would get the credit for it. That is an old trick of Rockefeller's, and is becoming somewhat stale.

"I have been troubled for some time with indigestion and sour stomach," says Mrs. Sarah W. Curtis, of Lee, Mass., "and have been taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets which have helped me very much so that now I can eat many things that before I could not."

Trouble is certainly brewing in Chicago. The labor unions are making preparations secretly for a general strike, and at the same time the railroads of the city are hiring large numbers of guards for their property and are keeping them at hand for instant use in case of emergency. Officers of the National Guard have been sounded as to the condition of their commands for active service, and there is a general feeling that a conflict cannot be long postponed.

While we are tongue-lashing Russia and Turkey suppose we pay some little heed to the lawlessness at home. The Russian and the Turk deserve all the thrashing they can get, but at the same time we should remember that people who live in glass houses should not throw too many stones, lest they demolish their own structures.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

Is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. It is especially valuable for summer diarrhoea in children and is undoubtedly the means of saving the lives of a great many children each year. For sale by F. J. Wattron.
